I Killed, 6 Hurt In Car Crashes On Week-end

Roxborough Cyclist Runs Into Wreckage of Two Cars at Barren Hill

LOCALITES INJURED

Plymouth Man Hit by Car, Sustains Fracture of Skull—Local Man Aids Injured

A cyclist was killed, a pedestrian injured critically and five motorists were hurt, two seriously, in a series of accidents occurring on Ridge pike in White-marsh township during the weekend.

Three cars were involved in one accident, four in another. All were wrecked badly, two being demolished.

Martin Walzer, 22, of 317 Dupont street, Roxborough, died in Memorial Hospital, Roxborough, after his motorcycle had crashed into a sedan in the middle of Ridge pike between Barren Hill and Manor roads, near the Springfield-Whitemarsh township dividing line.

Walter E. Phipps, 55, of Plymouth street, sustained a fractured skull, deep lacerations of the scalp and concussion, when he was struck by a sedan at 11:30 Sunday night less than 200 feet from the Whitemarsh township police station on Ridge pike opposite Crescent avenue, Barren Hill.

He was removed to Chestnut Hill Hospital in the Pennsylvania Motor police patrol car.

James Cirafesi, 2428 South Tenth street, Philadelphia, brisley entered the police station, where Acting Chief Harry Steinmetz was in conference with two patrolmen of the Pennsylvania Motor police concerning a previous accident. Trembling and holding his left hand over his heart, he exclaimed, "I just hit a man."

Police and others who were in the station house at the time, including the Roxborough Police, proceeded to the scene on foot. Cirafesi later was arrested and detained overnight at the police lockup pending the outcome of Phipps' injuries.

Two couples returning from a dance at Summit road and Pottstown, were involved in the original collision which resulted in the death of the cyclist.

The driver was Jack Hahn, of 138 West Champs street, Olney. According to information given the police, Hahn, driving southbound on Ridge pike, apparently mistook a driveway on the property of Attorney William Boening for a public thoroughfare, crashed nearly head-on into the oncoming car while attempting to return to his own traffic lane.

Earl McPeake, 55, of 109 West Fourth avenue, this borough, driver of the northbound sedan, was admitted to Chestnut Hill Hospital in observation. Believed to have multiple fractured ribs, he also suffered severely from shock.

His sedan, which came to a standstill in the middle of the highway, subsequently was struck by the cyclist traveling south and another automobile, which was northbound. Scores of cars were parked on both sides of the heavily traveled highway, but despite this apparent warning that something was amiss, many motorists failed to slow down.

Acting Chief Steinmetz reported, Officer John Perry of Springfield township police, who aided in directing traffic, leaped for his life when a speeding car bore down upon him and continued through the road without stopping.

Police were notified of the accident by telephone and were requested by the caller to come to Chestnut Hill Hospital at once.

At the hospital police found Oscar A. Hager, of 351 East Hector street, a passing motorist who had

Many Ask Relief From Jury Duty

Improved conditions in business and industry is being responsible for the number of persons seeking to be excused from service on a Montgomery County Civil Court jury panel.

With only 125 called for duty most of them for the entire week. It was the first time in many months that the court went to the trouble to question jurors as to the reasons for wishing to be freed of service. Usually those wishing to be excused are released without questioning.

George Moore, clerk, of 524 Stanbridge street, Norristown, an employee of the Sumner Hill Tubing Company, Bridgeport, was the only one who asked to be excused for the entire week who was not released. She was instructed by Judge Corson to remain on duty and in the event her services were absolutely necessary at the Bridgeport plant, she would be released later.

Walter S. Watson, North Hills, failed to answer when his name was called.

This failed to work out, however, due to the fact the Grand Jury also started its sessions and the group was charged by Judge Corson prior to the opening of Civil Court.

Ira Bickhart Dies in Street of Heart Attack

Was Supervising Men Making a Sewer Connection When Fatally Stricken

DIED INSTANTLY

Resigned as Plumbing Inspector to Return to Private Business

Stricken with a heart attack as he was supervising a sewer connection at the home of David Lukens, two doors below his own home, Ira Bickhart, 300 East Eighth avenue, well-known plumbing contractor and former borough plumbing inspector, died instantly shortly before noon today.

Mr. Bickhart was seated near the scene of the operation when he complained of being overheated and asked for a drink of water. By the time one of his employees could give him a drink, he fell over unconscious and before he could be carried to his home, he was fatally stricken and died on his 68th birthday.

Mr. Bickhart was apparently in excellent health. He arose at the usual hour this morning and did not complain of feeling unwell. He accompanied his employees to the scene of the work and remained with them until he was fatally stricken.

He deceased was the son of the late James and Elizabeth Staley Bickhart and was born and lived his entire life in this borough. He attended the local schools and later learned the plumbing business for himself about forty years ago. He continued in business until a little more than two years ago when he was elected borough plumbing inspector. He served in that capacity until about seven months ago when he resigned to again conduct his own business.

He is survived by his wife, Ephie, and the following children: Ethel, wife of Clarence Boler, Norristown; Charles W., at home; Bertha, wife of Charles W. Irwin, this borough; Elwood, Norristown; and Irene, wife of Robert Smith, Upper Merion. He is also survived by two brothers and two sisters, Frank, of Brantford; Vincent and Flora, of this borough; and Bertha, wife of Charles Birkheller, of Oak Lane.

No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Bickhart, 300 East Eighth avenue.

Burial will be in the cemetery at 11 o'clock.

Airmen Give Thrilling Show at Wings Field for Benefit of RAF

A crowd, estimated at well over 25,000 persons, got a new insight into the super-skills of the RAF pilots in a thrilling air show Sunday afternoon at Wings Field, Five Points near Plymouth Meeting.

Arranged under the joint auspices of the Emergency Aid and the British Relief Fund, proceeds of the greatest aerial event yet staged in the section will aid the British Royal Air Force Fund, for disabled British fliers and dependents.

Roads in five directions, jutting out from the socially and airtily-important Wings Field, were clogged hour upon hour, when the heaviest traffic in many years was poured into them.

One army officer, scheduled to speak at the event, reported that it required two hours to traverse the final four miles of his trip from Philadelphia to the field. Hundreds of automobiles were parked for hours in the parking space provided for the event, and all side roads were lined to a distance of more than a mile, in some instances, with streams of vehicles.

Mrs. Constance Wolf of "Wings-over" across from Wings Field, was executive chairman of the big benefit, assisted by dozens of socially prominent men and women and a hundred debutantes and sub-debutantes in formal evening dress.

Power dives, acrobatic flying stunts, sky-writing, air fighting, aerial pick-ups, sky military maneuvers, parachute jumping, singly and en masse, were just a few of the thrilling events that left the vast throng breathless.

"There'll be lots of sunburned tonsils this afternoon," one military man put it, when thousands and thousands of fliers turned for hours incessantly upon the unclouded blue of the sky, glided by the sun.

Feature of the afternoon was a "dog fight" by two Buffalo-Brewster fighting planes enroute to Java for Dutch service. The pilots were flown by two Dutch pilots 8,000 feet in the air. They dived and soared through the air in pursuit of each other in the same manner as those engaged in actual battle in Europe.

Another Buffalo fighter demonstrated a test power dive from an altitude of 10,000 feet.

Shirwood Cole thrilled the massive crowds with a delayed parachute jump after he reached 10,000 feet. Cole tumbled for 5,000 feet before, finally pulling the cord of the parachute.

Opening the long program, Edwin Canfield, known as the world's finest aerial sharpshooter, exhibited his skill by lowering to within 50 feet of the ground and bursting balloons with a gun.

A smoke-track plane was stunted by R. Dale Edgerton. Rolling and looping through the air, Edgerton performed numerous other difficult tricks.

The greatest stunts in the air were performed by Al Bennett in a "Pittifly." Bennett landed on one wheel after spinning his plane through the air in some of the most daring flying ever witnessed. Aerial acrobatics were also performed by Robert Morris.

The program closed with a mass parachute jump of eight men. One of the outgoing events was maneuvers by the 104th Mechanized Cavalry and 103rd Aerial Squadron from Indianapolis. In mock combat, the divisions "defended" Wings Field.

The public was allowed to inspect all of the planes, private and commercial, including a Hudson-Loch-head bomber which landed at (Continued on Page Two)

Auto Runs Into Train of Cars; Two Injured

Dancer in N. Y. Show and Wife Injured When Their Car Is Hit at Crossing

WIFE WAS DRIVING CAR

Did Not See Line of Cars or Flashing Signal—Injured Removed to Hospital

A young couple was injured seriously this morning when their automobile crashed into a draft of cars being pushed on a railroad siding leading to the Bethlehem Mines Company stone crushing plant on DeKalb pike, Upper Merion, at 3 a. m. today.

Paul Bartels, 24, 294 East Broadway, N. Y., told friends and nurses at Montgomery Hospital, that he is a member of the cast of the Broadway production, "Hell's Poppin'." He said he has a dancing part in the show.

His wife, Edna, 26, was driving the automobile, according to a statement made to Chief John Tompkins, Upper Merion. She said she did not see the line of cars, and did not observe the flashing signals at the side of the tracks.

The automobile crashed into the side of one of the cars, and was completely demolished. Members of the shifting crew removed the two occupants, and had them removed to the hospital.

At the hospital it was said both Bartels and his wife suffered severe contusions, and Bartel's face was cut about the eye. It was not determined at noon if the sight may be affected.

The couple were enroute to Pomeroy, Pa., where Mrs. Bartel's parents reside. They left New York after midnight, and were due back some time late this afternoon.

Opposes Tax on Musical Instruments

The proposal made by the Treasury Department that the new tax bill include a luxury levy of 10 per cent on musical instruments was called unsound by Karl Bartenbach, manager of the Pennsylvania department of McCoy's, Norristown.

Classifying music as a luxury is not only inaccurate but dangerous, he said. "Musical instruments should be considered tools of education and trade. If the proposed tax is put into effect, much of its burden will fall on schools and pupils and part of it upon professional musicians to whom instruments are the means of livelihood."

"Millions of boys and girls are studying music because its benefits as an educational medium are universally recognized. It takes only a little thought to realize how important music is to the public in these troublesome times, and its value in stirring patriotism and keeping up the morale of both those in military service and those at home."

"Rather than being killed by taxes, music should be encouraged in times like these as a source of comfort and a means of inspiration. Playing the piano, for instance, is a well known means of soothing jagged nerves and banishing worries. Music is a cure for 'war jitters' and not a luxury."

Friends of music all over the country, he said, are writing and wiring their congressmen to oppose this tax.

Williams held a position as assistant mechanical engineer at the Montgomery County Court House, before he became involved with the law.

Williams was arrested on charges of Hattie Mary Swaby, Willow Grove, negro, who claims that she gave Williams money to "fix" liquor charges brought against her.

Williams did not do so good, according to his accuser, who was sentenced before Judge Knight and convicted to pay $500 fine and $200 costs, which set a record for liquor fines and costs since liquor was legalized.

Williams remained on duty at the court house less than one day, after the charges were preferred before a justice of peace. He asked for a leave of absence, and it was promptly granted by the commissioners "without pay."

It was rumored, however, that the "leave" was suggested by the heads of the county government.

Williams will be listed for trial during the week of June 2.

According to information furnished by police, Williams is alleged to have accepted $50 from Hattie Mary Swaby, Ambler, after informing her he could obtain a reduction in fines and costs totaling more than $700 which had been imposed on her by the Montgomery County Court after her conviction on charges of violation of the Liquor Control Act and the Beverage License Law.

After serving several days in jail, however, Mrs. Swaby paid the full amount of the fine and costs, obtaining her release from an alternative bond in lieu of $100.

Bills Ignored

The Grand Jury ignored bills of indictment against Abraham Pomranitz, Levering Mill Road, Bala-Cynwyd, charged with violation of the Liquor Control Act and Gambling and against William J. Walsh, Lackawanna, N. Y.; Edward Matalavidge, Des Moines, Iowa and Paoli and Joseph Greblanica, Wilkes-Barre all of whom were charged with setting fire to land of another.

Although returning a true bill against Joseph J. Connor, Linwood avenue, Ardmore, charged with failure to stop at the scene of an accident, the Grand Jury ignored another bill charging him with drunken driving.

The orders are from the War Department, and call for 300,000 pairs of cotton home twill trousers, estimated to total $184,000 and 225,000 square green field caps, at 22c each.

Material for the trousers and caps is furnished by the government. The local company executes the making only. According to an official the work will give occupation to numerous additional experienced sewers.

OFFICER RESUMED DUTIES

Police Officer Ezekiel Kirkpatrick resumed his duties last night after being confined to his home on East Sixth avenue by illness.

Plan to Sell VFW Poppies

Auxiliary of Post 1074 Will Begin Sale Next Monday—Plan for Memorial Service

"The success of the annual sale of buddy poppies here depends upon the people of Conshohocken who are willing to give a small donation, in support of a worthy cause," said Commander Alfred Volpe, Conshohocken Post, 1074, V. F. A., at the weekly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the post last night, at the post rooms. "Children of our community have already demonstrated that they are glad to buy buddy poppies whenever the opportunity arises," Commander Volpe concluded. Plans for the yearly sale over the Memorial Day period were made last night. Proceeds will be used exclusively for welfare work among veterans and dependents, some of the work local, some national. Sale of the poppies will begin next Monday and continue throughout the week. The auxiliary will join in the annual memorial service, Sunday night, wearing regulation uniform. Meeting at the post rooms at 7, the women will march with the veterans to Second avenue and Fayette street, where they will join members of the American Legion Post and proceed to St. Mark's Lutheran Church for the service.

The monthly gift of cigarettes for an "adopted" veteran at Coatesville will be sent and greeting cards have been sent to a number of ill veterans, it was reported.

A spaghetti social for post and auxiliary members and guests followed, with Mrs. Bernard Casarolo as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Pasquale Albanese, Mrs. Peyton Bentley and Mrs. Mary Balzano assisting. Mrs. Bentley Kearney presided.

They Also Serve

To produce a battleship, a fleet of bombers or a hundred big guns, thousands of telephone calls must be made.

The 7,500 Bell telephone operators in Pennsylvania are handling millions of important calls every day.

Behind the scenes, they smooth the pathways and speed the work that hasten plans, purchases and production. So efficient is their performance that it's easy to forget the important part they play.

Today switchboards are busier, calls are more important, speed is more essential than ever before. Yet "the voice with a smile" is as calm and friendly, as courteous, as eager to serve as ever.

LEE ADAMS GARTHWAITE

Miss Garthwaite to Wed New York Man

Divorced by Judge George C. Corson a month ago, Lee Adams Garthwaite, 29, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Garthwaite, North Lane, near Jones street, yesterday filed an application for a marriage license to wed Alexander Stronach, Jr., 35, of 50 East 67th street, New York.

Stronach, an advertising man, and a son of Attorney and Mrs. Alexander Stronach, of Elm street, Great Neck, New York, was divorced in April 1934.

The decree handed down here granted a divorce to the daughter of A. A. Garthwaite, president of the Lee Tire and Rubber Company, from Joseph Corson Jones, a commercial artist, of 405 East 54th street, New York, on grounds of desertion. She alleged she was deserted by Jones, a former resident of this borough, February 1, 1939 while they were residing in New York.

The divorce was recommended after hearings conducted before Attorney Donald J. McConigal, master.

After their marriage on November 1, 1935 Mr. and Mrs. Jones went to Bermuda on their honeymoon and upon their return resided at Mill Creek, River road, Gladwyn, and subsequently resided in Philadelphia and New York.

Their marriage was happy until Christmas of 1938. Mrs. Jones told the master.

The marriage of the Jones in 1935 was one of the most important nuptial events of the season in this section. They were married at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Stanley B. West, rector of Calvary P. E. Church and on the same day a second ceremony was held at the rectory of St. Peter and Paul's Cathedral, Philadelphia.

NAMED ASSISTANT MATRON AT HOUSE OF DETENTION

Mrs. Isabelle Shoemaker, East Norristown, widow of William Shoemaker, cement contractor, who died suddenly last month, was named assistant matron of the Montgomery County House of Detention yesterday afternoon by the Board of Managers.

Mrs. Shoemaker will receive a salary of $600 annually. Her appointment is effective June 16.

The three commissioners—Fred C. Peters, Foster C. Hillegass and Raymond K. Mensch, Controller Dr. Frank P. K. Barker, and Sheriff R. Ronald Detter—comprise the Board of Managers.

The national debt is so grotesquely large that the interest alone on the debt in the fiscal year 1942 will be approximately $1,250,000,000. Interest for a year on an ordinary automobile is about $35. In terms of interest that is 35,714,285 automobiles.

TUESDAY, MAY 20, 1941.

Week-end Toll.

One killed, six injured, on Ridge pike, in Whitemarsh township, is the week-end record for motor accidents. The accidents began with a crash of two cars going in opposite directions. A motorcyclist plowed into the wreckage and suffered fatal injuries. A pedestrian was struck by a car and is in a hospital critically injured.

A second crash caused traffic troubles on the four-lane pike and despite the efforts of police to safeguard traffic and move it cautiously pass the wrecks, many motorists ignored warnings and drove at high speed through the danger area. A patrolman narrowly escaped being struck by a speeding car.

Despite the number of deaths and injuries in motor accidents there are many drivers who refuse to obey the rules of the road. The laws are stringent but drivers will still take a chance and endanger the lives of themselves and other travelers. Campaigns of education for safe driving are numerous and the state requires all applicants for a driver's license must pass a test.

Precautions are taken to keep the highways clear of reckless drivers, but there are still many at large. How to get rid of them is still an unsolved problem and the toll of death and injury continues.

Rotary Clubs Hold Joint Meeting

The Conshohocken and North Wales clubs met in joint session last night in the Memorial Library, North Wales, with J. Vincent Wachorn of the North Wales club presiding and extending a warm welcome to the local Rotarians, twenty-three in number.

After Raymond Stong, a member of the North Wales Club, sang two solos, Andrew Messino, of Wilmington, Del., was introduced as the speaker, and in an interesting talk described his personal experiences in the battle at Narvik, Norway, in April, 1940.

He was employed as a cook on a Norwegian freighter, leaving Wilmington for Cuba, four or five days after the boat left Cuba, the speaker learned it was bound for Norway, arriving at Narvik on April 1st. He told how the Germans explained to the Norwegians they would be better under the rule of Hitler and how the British tried to influence them not to accede to German domination. He told of two Norwegian battleships being docked side by side in the harbor along with British battleships, of German warships coming in and sandwiching his own freighter in between the German and British freighters.

He said Narvik was taken without a shot being fired but when members of his crew dove into the water to save themselves machine guns were turned on them and many of them were killed. He said he reached shore safely and was taken prisoner by the Germans and the only evidence he had to prove that he was an American and the only thing that gained him his freedom was his birth certificate.

He told of his trip back to the United States which was through Russia into Japan, from where he sailed for home.

It was announced that a joint meeting between the Conshohocken Rotary Club and the Lions Club will be held on June 9 at Fort Washington Inn.

From Local Boys in Army Camp

Camp Pendleton, Pa. 57th Coast Artillery Battery D

To The Recorder: Conshohocken, Pa. Dear Sirs: We have in Camp Pendleton, Va., Blaise DiJenno, the only man in our regiment from Conshohocken. As he is quite a character and a member of your community we thought you would be interested in him and his camp activities.

Down here he is our battery barber and what a scrapper—all those hair clips are butchered and we do mean butchered. Here he is called "Conshohocken" or the "Conshohocken Gold Brick" (Gold Brick—one who tries to get out and away from any work. P. S. He does plenty). We hope you can use this information.

We remain, The Boys of Battery D 57th C.A. (Approved by Blaise DiJenno).

Delay Tax

(Continued From Page One) 1941, and that all subsequent taxes during the installment period of the next four years must also be paid before they become delinquent.

The question of penalties and interest which have accumulated on unpaid taxes dating back to 1935 is considered in the Act, and it is provided that such assessments above the regular levies are abated under the Act, provided the unpaid delinquent taxes are paid under the provisions of the law.

This is interpreted by Attorney Ralph Wisner, solicitor to the County Treasurer, that any political sub-division by his regularly elected taxing authority may reject any or all provisions of the new law.

Letters to all political sub-divisions have been mailed by the County Treasurer notifying them of the new Act, and unless replies are received before June 1, it will be considered they have accepted the new law, and will accept the installments each year for the next five years, including 1941, and abate the penalties and interest.

The Montgomery County Commissioners have officially rejected the provisions of the Act, according to Mrs. Beerer, and while it will not affect the date fixed for the next sales—December 18, 1941—the installment and abatement advantages will not be available to persons owing county taxes.

Town Council at the regular meeting, last Wednesday, rejected the act and so notified the County Commissioners.

Golden Bears Easy Prey for Coatesville

Visitors Score in Every Inning—Pile Up Early Lead—Bears Play at Pottstown Tomorrow—Home Friday With West Chester.

Scoring in every inning, Coatesville trounced the Golden Bears of Conshohocken High 13-4 in a See-athletic field.

Kushla started on the mound for the Bears but it was not his day. As a result the visitors scored once in the first and clinched the game by scoring four more in the second. After Coatesville scored two more runs in the 3rd and added 3 more in the 4th, Kushla gave way to Joe Stubiński, who fared much better, holding his opponents to one run in each of the last three innings.

Young was on the mound for Coatesville and while he gave up 11 hits he kept them well scattered. He struck out four batters and did not issue a base on balls. Young also collected three hits. It was not until the fifth inning that the Bears were able to get a runner across the plate. They scored their last three runs in the final inning by bunching four of their 11 hits. Hylinski and Gum singled and both scored when Pasquini drove out a triple. Pasquini reached home on McMullen's single.

The Bears will travel to Pottstown tomorrow afternoon and will return to the athletic field to play a postponed game with West Chester, title winners, on Friday afternoon.

Invaders Triumph in Opening Game

The Conshohocken Invaders traveled to Norristown last night and defeated the Ascension Reformed Church team 11-7 in the opening game of the 1941 softball season.

Every man on the local team played a stellar game. Adam Zajac was on the mound for the Invaders and pitched airtight ball in the pinches. He was backed up by clever hitting and timely hitting. The locals opened their scoring in the second inning when they sent three runs across the plate. They added five more in the fourth and three in the fifth. Smith of the Ascension team hit a homer and a triple.

St. Cosmos Victors in Bocce Opening

St. Cosmos and Damian Bocce Club opened its home schedule in the Pennsylvania League Sunday afternoon with Plymouth as the opening attraction on the Third and Maple street alleys, and St. Cosmos triumphed by taking three of the five games played.

Plymouth put up a strong fight and carried the contest to the limit. The Plymouth won the first game 12-7 and St. Cosmos took the second game by the same score. Plymouth came back and took the third game by a 12-5 score and then St. Cosmos came through to win the next two games by identical scores of 12-5 to win the match.

WILL ASSIST DEVON FAIR

A final executive meeting of officers, board and committee chairman of the Devon County Fair before the opening of the event May 26 will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Eshman, Stoke Potts, 34 Pleasant road, near West Conshohocken.

Another artistic feature will be "The Portraits" by Mary Sarg, daughter of the famous Tony Sarg, who will be at Mrs. R. Alexander Montgomery's booth. Miss Sarg, who now lives at New Hope, is distinguished for her pencil drawings and pastel tint etchings of children.

The Recorder will be mailed twice each week to any U. S. Army Camp for $1.50 a year.

Penn Square Forfeits Two to Barren Hill

Fails to Place a Full Team on the Field for Either Game—Teams Play Exhibition Games and Each Scores a Triumph.

Barren Hill won two Montgomery County League games the easy way over the week-end when Penn Square, unable to play a full team on the field, forfeited both of the regularly scheduled league contests. The game on Saturday was scheduled to be played on the Penn Square grounds. In order not to disappoint the number of spectators who had gathered to witness the games, enough non-team players to complete a team were pressed into service and an exhibition game was played. Penn Square won the game 5 to 1.

Bob Strouse was on the mound and pitched a beautiful game, holding the heavy-hitting Barons to three hits, one of which was a double by Kurkowski, and giving up only one base on balls. DiMino and Maerdt divided the hurling for the Barren Hill team and between them allowed only six hits, with DiMino being charged with the defeat.

Penn Square won the game in the opening inning when they sent two runs across the plate. They added one more in the third and two more in the fifth. The lone run scored by the Barons came in the third inning.

Penn Square appeared at Sutcliffe Park Sunday afternoon with only eight players and after the game had been awarded the locals, Penn Square picked up another player and in a five-inning exhibition game was defeated by the shut-out route, the final score being 3-0. The Barons clinched the verdict in the second inning by scoring two runs and adding another in the third, while for Penn Square it was just a string of goose eggs.

DiNon started on the mound for Barren Hill and was given credit for the victory. He was relieved late in the game by Supple, R. Strouse went the distance for the Square team.

Barren Hill won two Montgomery County League games the easy way over the week-end when Penn Square, unable to play a full team on the field, forfeited both of the regularly scheduled league contests.

The game on Saturday was scheduled to be played on the Penn Square grounds. In order not to disappoint the number of spectators who had gathered to witness the games, enough non-team players to complete a team were pressed into service and an exhibition game was played. Penn Square won the game 5 to 1.

Bob Strouse was on the mound and pitched a beautiful game, holding the heavy-hitting Barons to three hits, one of which was a double by Kurkowski, and giving up only one base on balls. DiMino and Maerdt divided the hurling for the Barren Hill team and between them allowed only six hits, with DiMino being charged with the defeat.

Penn Square won the game in the opening inning when they sent two runs across the plate. They added one more in the third and two more in the fifth. The lone run scored by the Barons came in the third inning.

Penn Square appeared at Sutcliffe Park Sunday afternoon with only eight players and after the game had been awarded the locals, Penn Square picked up another player and in a five-inning exhibition game was defeated by the shut-out route, the final score being 3-0. The Barons clinched the verdict in the second inning by scoring two runs and adding another in the third, while for Penn Square it was just a string of goose eggs.

DiNon started on the mound for Barren Hill and was given credit for the victory. He was relieved late in the game by Supple, R. Strouse went the distance for the Square team.

Legion Wins in Twilighters' Opening Game

Legionnaires Have Big Fifth Inning and Win Handily From Gulph Mills—Bate Holds Opponents—Other Games This Week.

With perfect weather conditions, the Conshohocken Twilight League opened the 1941 campaign last night at the Center athletic field. Burgess William Longacre tossed out the first ball after which the American Legion and Gulph Mills teams, both new members, put on an interesting and well-played game, despite the fact the Legion won by a score of 8-2.

Bate was on the mound for the Legion and was opposed by Brooke Shoffner and with the exception of the fifth inning, when the embryo soldiers bunched five hits to score five runs, there was little to choose between the two hurlers.

Bate limited his opponents to six hits, struck out six batters and issued two walks. Shoffner was nicked for nine hits, five of them coming in the fifth inning, and did not issue a base on balls.

The Legion scored first, getting one run in the opening inning. Gulph Mills came back to go out in front by scoring twice in the second but that was their sum total of run making. Legion added two more in their half of the third and then in the fifth in which they tallied five times. Juk Heleniak opened with a single, Mike Zajac doubled to deep centerfield, Joe Stubiński struck out. Steve Pasquini singled, scoring both Heleniak and Zajac. Dick Gum doubled to send Pasquini across the plate and advanced on an infield out and scored on a fielder's choice. A single by DeWalt scored the remaining run.

Pleading honors went to Pasquini and Stubiński of the Legion and to Brooke Shoffner of Gulph Mills, who handled five chances without an error.

Charles Lutter's Keglers and Alan Wood, defending champions, will meet in tonight's game and on Thursday evening E. J. Lavino will cross bats with John Sparrow's Spring Mill Boys Club.

Wills

Louisa L. Trasel, Haverford, who died April 22, named her sisters, Sophie and Marie Trasel, chief beneficiaries of her estate valued at $5,000.

Anna G. Boyd, Rosemont, who died May 10, left an estate of $40,000 in equal shares to her three children, George Boyd, Mary B. Spahr and Elizabeth B. Morris, according to her will filed for probate here. Legacies of $500 for each grandchild also are provided.

Dear Susan: Thanks for telling me about RYTEX—HYLITED WEDDINGS. They're really lovely... I could scarcely believe that they were actually priced at $3... for $5. I saw the entire RYTEX-HYLITED Wedding line at the RE-CORDER, Hector and Forrest. (Phones 50 and 501)... All the styles were so smart I hardly knew which to choose.

I Killed, 6 Hurt - - -

brought several occupants of the Hahn car to the institution. They were Miss Frances Flynn, 19, of 2436 North Sydenham street, Philadelphia, Charles Costello, 19, of 5705 North Fairhill street, Philadelphia and Miss Eileen McHugh, 19, of 2818 Wishart street, Philadelphia. Miss McHugh was admitted. All were treated for lacerations and bruises.

Nafziger told police that when he left the scene of the accident a man was lying in the middle of the road. The officers then hurried to the scene, when they found Hahn on his feet, but dazed badly. He complained of injury in his chest. Acting Chief Steinmetz drove him to the hospital; Officer Axel Swanson remained at the scene.

Local Woman Injured

Subsequently, while Acting Chief Steinmetz still was detained at the hospital, the motorcyclist struck the wrecked sedan, and another motorist crashed into it, injuring Miss Claire Fosnauz, 27, of 373 East Hector street. The woman was admitted to Memorial Hospital, Roxborough, suffering a possible concussion.

Joseph Renoff, of 632 South street, Philadelphia, was operator of the coach in which Miss Fosnauz was a passenger. His car struck the left rear of the McPeake sedan. He was coming from Philadelphia.

Walzer was taken to Memorial Hospital by a passing motorist. His cycle was damaged badly. The handle bars appeared sheered off; it is believed he skidded sideways into the wrecked machine. Walzer was employed for the last three years in a Roxborough diner.

So badly was McPeake's automobile wrecked that police were unable to determine where the cyclist roared into it. Walzer was said to have been at the diner just before the fatal accident occurred.

The wrecked cars were added to the collection at Gillinger's garage, Barren Hill. The total "tag" for the night was $1,000. The motorcyclist, three automobiles were involved in an earlier accident, at 9 p. m., on Ridge pike near a bridge over a creek running from Marble Hill golf course.

Only minor cuts and bruises were sustained by occupants of three automobiles in a collision on the west surface of Ridge pike in Barren Hill at 9 Saturday night.

James Volpe, 251 Gay street Roxborough, driving south on the pike, sideswiped a sedan operated by John Hollis, of 628 Arch street, Norristown, traveling in the opposite direction, while attempting to pass another sedan. Benjamin Demott, of 628 East Main street, Norristown, was the operator of the third car.

Hollis' machine was thrown against the Denotti automobiles, one in a ditch on the side of the pike facing Marble Hill golf course, another plowed into an embankment on the opposite side of the pike, the third on the highway in front of the home of Charles Stayton and family.

Officer Axel Swanson of Whittemarsh township police and two patrolmen of the Pennsylvania Motor Police assisted in unsmothering traffic congestion at the scene.

Pedestrian Struck
Phipps was walking on the right side of Ridge pike, towards Philadelphia, when the sedan driven by Cirafesi, traveling in the same direction, bore down upon him.

The right headlight and fender struck the pedestrian, hurled his body over the car onto the highway. But police, arriving a moment later, found the injured man lying in the field near a driveway leading to the home of Mrs. R. L. Winters, approximately 75 feet from the car. Cirafesi left on the highway, and an additional twenty feet from the scene where the driver said he struck the man.

Cirafesi told the officers that he drove in reverse after striking the man, then abandoned his car to notify police when he spied the familiar white car of the Pennsylvania Motor patrol parked in front of Whittemarsh township police station.

The driver and the police were at a loss to explain how Phipps reached the field, although one motorist who said he was following Cirafesi's car reported the pedestrian staggered for some distance after picking himself up, then finally collapsed off the highway.

Phipps was unconscious when police arrived and had not regained his senses yesterday morning at the hospital. He was given first aid by the motor police, his head swathed in bandages before he was placed in the patrol car.

Truck Car Collide
Michael Tichonuk, 55, of 209 East Ellen street, Philadelphia, driving a coal truck, and Frank Gallo, of 1827 South 12th street, Philadelphia, operating a sedan, escaped unhurt in a collision at 1:05 a. m. yesterday on Ridge pike in Barren Hill.

Miss Dorothy Rawlings, 28, of Philadelphia, riding in the sedan, was taken to Chestnut Hill Hospital by Acting Chief Harry Steinmetz of Whittemarsh township police, because she complained of injury to her head. She was treated and discharged.

Both vehicles were traveling in the direction of Philadelphia. Apparently Gallo attempted to pass the coal truck, misjudged his distance and hit the truck in the rear. He insisted, however, in his police report that the operator of the truck collided with his car.

Deaths

Elwood W. Jones

Funeral services for Elwood W. Jones, 52, husband of Kathryn Hart Jones, a native of this borough, who died Friday in Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, following a brief illness from a heart condition, were conducted at 2 this afternoon from the D. Rae Boyd Funeral Home, 718 Swede street, Norristown. Interment was made at Arlington Cemetery, Drexel Hill.

Deceased, who resided at 108 Mill Lane, Lancaster, was general manager of the Lansdowne Steel and Iron Company. He was taken ill Wednesday night while bowling. He was removed to his home and when his condition became worse on Thursday morning a physician was summoned and ordered his removal to the hospital.

A son of Linah H. Michael and the late Elwood D. Jones, deceased, was born in this borough on January 16, 1899. He attended the local schools and continued to live here until after his marriage when he took up his residence in Norristown. He resided in Delaware county for a number of years.

He was a member of Charity Lodge No. 190, F. & A. M., the Philadelphia Consistory, Hutchinson Commandery, Conshohocken Lodge, Order of Independent Americans and St. George's Episcopal Church, South Langhorne.

In addition to his wife and mother, he is survived by two sons, Merritt, Utica, N. Y., Everett, at home, a student at Temple University, a brother, Sylvester, 111 West Formance street, Norristown; a sister, Mrs. Mary W. Johnson, 170 Marlborough road, Upper Darby.

William N. Todd
William N. Todd, 32, a native of this borough, died Friday in Cleveland, Ohio, following a lingering illness. Funeral services and interment were held today in Cleveland. Deceased was the son of Joseph L. and the late Margaret Todd and a grandson of the late Holand and Mary Nixon.

Funerals

Abram DeHaven
The funeral of Abram DeHaven, 67, former burgess of West Conshohocken, who died Thursday evening at his home, 631 Ford street, West Conshohocken, was held yesterday afternoon from the Paul D. Miller Funeral Home, 300 Fayette street, and was largely attended. Services at 2 were conducted by Rev. M. W. Butler, pastor of the Gulph Christian Church. Interment was made in Gulph Cemetery.

The Masonic Burial rites were conducted at the grave by members of Fritz Lodge No. 420, of which deceased was a member.

POPPY DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the wearing of the memorial poppy is a fitting and effective way of keeping bright the memory of those young men who gave their lives in America's service, in the World War, and

WHEREAS, the men of Conshohocken served gallantly in that war, some being called upon to sacrifice their lives in that service, and

WHEREAS, the present national emergency requires the same type of unselfish patriotism displayed by the men and symbolized by their memorial flower, and

WHEREAS, the women of the American Auxiliary will distribute veteran-made memorial poppies throughout the town on Saturday, May 24th.

NOW, therefore, I, William H. Longacre, Burgess of the Borough of Conshohocken, do proclaim, Saturday, May 24th, to be Poppy Day in the Borough of Conshohocken, and urge all citizens to observe the day by wearing the memorial poppy of The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary in honor of the men who died for America in the war of 1917 and 1918.

"Straw" Woman In Bankruptcy

Hearing on a bankruptcy petition of Marguerite L. Dunn, 115 Coulter avenue, Ardmore, who listed liabilities totaling $277,069.18 was held yesterday morning by Referee Thomas Hallman in his office on Swede street.

Miss Dunn listed her assets as nothing but personal effects, which she claimed in her $300 exemption. Miss Dunn, a former employee of the defunct Merion Title and Trust Company, was nothing but a "straw" woman for the many transactions listed in her name.

The petitioner signed bonds and mortgages in her capacity as an employee, and in order to clear her name of the obligations, the bankruptcy petition was filed.

There were no creditors present at the hearing this morning. Miss Dunn formally stated under oath that the statement of liabilities and assets were true, and the next hearing will be held within 60 days.

The bonds and mortgages range each week to any U. S. Army Camp from $2500 to $10,000 and were given for $1.50 a year.

to banks and building and loans as security for money advanced on properties. In each instance the mortgages were secured by real estate.

Divorce Actions

A divorce action was filed yesterday by Edwin Gallup Fox, Lower Merion, against Margaret Taitmal Fox, alleging desertion June 24, 1939, according to the label filed in Fox's behalf. The couple was married June 5, 1928.

A divorce action was filed November 3, 1939 by Mrs. Fox, charging her husband with cruel treatment and indignities. The court appointed Attorney William J. Moran, Jr., master in the proceedings and one hearing was held. Her action still is pending as the label was filed in the husband's behalf.

Grace L. Cassel, West Norriton, asks a divorce from Albert R. Cassel, alleging indignities. They were married June 21, 1919.

The Recorder will be mailed twice each week to any U. S. Army Camp for $1.50 a year.

Claims Man Aimed at Dog; Shot Man

The poor marksmanship of Howell T. Sisson, Lower Providence Township, has resulted in his being sued for a total of $1040.80 by Stanislaw Malanoski, also Lower Providence, who alleges that Sisson took aim at the Malanoski dog, and pellets from the shotgun charge struck Malanoski in the side of the head and the cheek.

Malanoski gives little details of the incident other than to state that he and Sisson each owned a dog. He states in his action that the dogs "are not friendly."

He then goes on to state that he was walking along the street near his home, and his dog was on the Malanoski property.

Malanoski says that Sisson was across the street, and "was carrying a shotgun." Malanoski charges that Sisson raised the gun and in "a most grossly, negligent, careless and malicious manner" fired at Malanoski's dog.

Malanoski does not state if the dog was struck, but he says he was hit by pellets. He wants $10 for medical expenses, $30.80 for loss of work, and $1000 for pain and suffering.
