DIMINISHING EARTHQUAKES.
NO THIRD TERM.
MUST THE STRIKE COME?
THE HEN, PIG AND COW.

California earthquake reports justify down, as was predicted. Five times as many deaths in a small section of a big Eastern city, due to some disease outbreak, would attract no attention.

Those that know California know that this misfortune of a moment will be wiped away, made up and soon forgotten. It will not check California's growth by as much as an hour.

The Italian earthquake in 1915 killed 12,000, and in 1908 earthquakes in Italy killed 70,000. Italy has volcanoes in addition to earthquakes, yet nobody says, "I shall not go to Italy." A dozen killed in California, and "vicious publicity" make of the event a GIANTIC DISASTER.

A large crowd from this vicinity accompanied the excursion to River View beach on Saturday given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Gulf Christian church. Besides the members of the society, quite a number of members of Trinity Mission at the Gulf and others were among the excursionists. They left the Gulf station at 10:30 a. m. and a special car, packed with the society members, was attached to the regular schedule train. The trip to and from the beach was made on the Wilson Line of steamers.

Under Merion township is losing its suburban aspect and thus is losing its identity. This indication is noticed on the road leading to the beach. The houses are being built in the country and the country is being built in the city. The houses are being built in the country and the country is being built in the city.

The New York Times devotes part of its front page to "a third term for Coolidge." There can't be any Coolidge third term discussion until after the President shall have been re-elected in 1928. He has been elected only once thus far. If, as is probable, he should be re-elected in 1928, that would be his SECOND TERM and the right time to begin talking of a THIRD term.

When Washington was President and an aggressive editor was accusing him of royal ambition, a desire to be king, the people worried about too long tenure of office. Having got rid of an English king they didn't want an American king.

Washington answered that when he refused to be elected more than twice.

Third term talk now should be postponed by sensible people until about 1930. Meanwhile, there is plenty of work for the people to do without worrying about distant issues. If the President carried the nation successfully through his FIRST elected term, without serious mistakes or setbacks, he would have rendered a great service to the United States, and the people of his party, not being idiots, will ask him to take charge for four years more.

A great coal strike threatens here, as a similar strike threatened in England. Mr. Lewis, leader of coal miners, and owners of mines should think it over carefully.

To force a strike, when the people are willing to pay a fair price for coal based on fair wages, will have rendered a great service to the United States, and the people of his party, not being idiots, will ask him to take charge for four years more.

Insurance authorities, that ought to know, deny flatly that cancer is hereditary. Nature protects the unborn child. Study of thousands of cases proves that the disease is not inherited, also it is NOT CONTAGIOUS. Unlike consumption and other diseases, you cannot "catch" cancer from its victim. It is important to have this known.

Missionaries to Africa take a tame menagerie, including chickens, pigs, cattle and goats. As they travel the missionaries will observe how these interesting animals all represent EVOLUTION. The White Leghorns and Rhode Island Reds come from jungle fowl. Cows are improved from the aurochs, the buffalo, or the yak. The pigs have their relatives scattered from the tapers in South America to the fierce, bristled war hog of the jungle, of the hippopotamus.

Everything proves that constant change, or evolution, exists in the animal kingdom. Only the blind don't see it.

Tough on Grandma Frederick was crying when Billy came along and asked what was the matter.

"Oh, I feel so bad 'cause Colleen's dead," sobbed Frederick.

"Colleen?" said Billy. "My grand-mother's been dead a week and you don't catch me crying."

Frederick gave his eyes and nose a swipe and, looking up, sobbed desperately:

"But you didn't cry when Colleen was dead?"

61 FAYETTE STREET

A New Hampshire lad broke a window on the Concord Railroad the other day, and put his back against the broken pane in order to conceal it when the conductor passed through the car. The next moment he turned with a smile of satisfaction to a man in the seat behind him, saying:

"Don't tell on me!"

"Ah! that I am the superintendent of the road," answered his chance acquaintance.

The head half-wit was walking through the village, when he noticed a twenty-five cent piece lying in the roadway.

As he picked it up a passerby exclaimed: "That's my half-dollar, thank you."

"Just my blooming luck," lamented the poor fellow. "Here, take the quarter, I must save you the rest."

What the World Is Doing

As Seen by Popular Mechanics Magazine

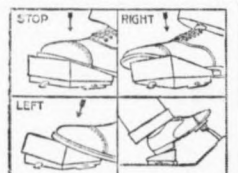

Roadway Raised as a Barrier to Guard Crossings

Barriers operated by hydraulic pressure applied by the trains, have been suggested for prevention of accidents at railway crossings. They are to be constructed as triangular platforms elevated from the road level by the weight of the engine and cars, and sink back to a horizontal position when the train has passed. Vivid "Stop" signs on the sides, illuminated at night, would give motorists ample warning at a distance.

Foot Switch for Car Signals Increases Auto Safety

Stop-signals and direction lights are added for the guidance of motorists by pressing a foot switch fitted on the bottom of the car so that the driver need not remove his hands from the steering wheel. It may be operated either by the heel or toe, pressure in the middle turning on the stop light and a turn of the foot, to the right or left, making contacts that light the corresponding signal lamps. The switch is also adapted for opening electric latches on office doors, and for ringing call or alarm bells and buzzers. It is easily installed and has no parts likely to get out of order.

Hundred Bolts of Lightning Flash Every Second

According to a London weather-bureau report, there are about 1800 thunderstorms in progress every minute throughout the world, giving 360,000 lightning flashes an hour or 100 every second. Observations made from 3000 stations, indicate that the earth experiences 16,000,000 storms of this character each year, about 44,000 daily. At certain points in tropical countries, during the rainy season, distant thunder is such a common occurrence that the observer frequently forgets to enter it in his register.

"Deadliest Ray" Is Reported

Said to be more destructive than any previous invention of its kind, a new death ray discovered by a German has an effective ground range of forty miles and operates to an altitude of more than 45,000 feet. Men and animals are rendered unconscious by the mysterious force of its waves, the paralyzing influence lasting for six hours, according to reports to the department of commerce.

Oil Extracted from Locusts Lubricates Watches

Oil extracted from locusts is being used in South Africa as a substitute for purpose oil as a lubricant for watches and other delicate mechanisms. The insects are fed into presses which crush them and the resultant oil is refined and allowed to stand for a year. Its quality is then determined by its color, consistency and odor. The solid matter remaining after the oil is extracted is made into cakes that are used for poultry feed and defray much of the expense of making the oil.

Improved Electric Stove

When one housewife wanted an electric stove, she took a tin can, 8 in. square and 6 in. high, and cut a slot, 6 in. long and about 1 in. wide, in one side with a can opener. One end was also cut open. The electric flatiron was slipped into the slot with the bottom up, as shown, and all stove was ready for cooking. All kinds of liquids may be kept hot on it, and it has various other uses.

STATE AID SOUGHT FOR BRIDGE ROAD

The County Commissioners have been advised that the allotment for Montgomery county from the 1925 legislative appropriation of the Motor Vehicle Fund, to be applied to road-improvement work, would total $11,750. A movement is on foot to have a portion of this money spent on the bridge road through Norristown.

This is a State highway, is Norristown's principal business street, runs two miles through town, and is in a bad condition in spots. It is much traveled and is permanently paved for nearly the entire distance with brick, Belgian blocks and a bituminous mixture, laid nearly thirty years ago on a concrete base of six inches, with money raised by a loan authorized by the voters of Norristown. The town feels that the State should now take care of this road, one of its best examples of paved roads in Reading and Philadelphia.

Stolt has been brought by William Harty, of Lancaster, against Thomas R. Hood and Annie L. Hood. Hood, his wife, to recover $1625 wages alleged to be owing for services as superintendent of a farm in Lancaster township known as the Old Hood Farm.

The Welfare Committee of the Norristown Lions Club presented the borough with bouquets for the picnic ground in Elmwood Park, made by the prisoners in the Montgomery County Prison.

NEGRO'S DEATH DUE TO EXCESSIVE DRINKING

Three hours after he had been admitted to Montgomery hospital, Norristown, Clarence Denny, age 50, colored, died in convulsions, due to excessive use of alcohol. Registrar White, of Norristown, was notified and made an investigation. He ascertained Denny had been drinking heavily for several days. Thursday afternoon his condition became serious and he was admitted to the institution at 2 o'clock and expired at 4.

Denny was employed on the farm of Mrs. Hughes at Gulf Mills, but left on Tuesday and failed to return until Thursday.

As a minister was leaving a temperance meeting he encountered one of his flock considerably the worse for drink.

"Oh, William," he exclaimed, "I'm surprised to find you in this state. I'm sorry! I'm sorry—very sorry!"

"Well," muttered the man, "if you're really sorry, I—4 forgive you."

"The Shelburne"—An English Type

A Well-Planned Home With Modern Improvements

This commodious home will suit many of our suburban districts. The simple, well-proportioned lines will appeal to those who desire a comfortable home without ostentatious display, and the permanent character of its construction of concrete block covered with portland cement stucco will insure a permanence, warmth, and freedom from repair that will make it an economical and lasting investment.

The permanence is not confined to the walls, as the roof has been covered with fire-resisting concrete roofing tile, or cement asbestos shingles, and the flashings, gutters and down-pipes are all of copper which is practically everlasting.

There is a fine porch opening from the living room, which may be screened if desired, and at the rear is a glassed-in breakfast porch, which can also be used as a sun parlor. This porch will have a concrete floor covered with linoleum or concrete. In one of the new popular designs. The living room, with its three large windows, the dining room, also with three large windows, and the kitchen, with two windows side by side, insure plenty of air and light throughout the entire first floor. A small alcove just off the kitchen is used for the icebox.

The second floor has three bedrooms of different sizes with plenty of closet space for each room, there being five closets, two in one room, one in each of the other rooms, and one in the hall. A large sleeping porch in the rear provides space for health-building sleep in the open air. This can be enclosed in glass if desired with suitable means for ventilation. Two additional rooms can be provided in the attic if desired. These are entered from one of the patent disappearing stairways installed in the ceiling of the

F. B. DAVIDSON SOUGHT FOR PARTICULAR WORK

Many Companies Employ Spring Mill Contractor

A man's wealth is judged by the amount of money he possesses and a man's success depends upon the amount of business he does. There is no one in the Spring Mill, Pa., excavating, grading, hauling, and cement contracting, of Spring Mill, is one of the most successful contractors in his section.

Several large corporations who select men to do their work with the greatest of care invariably employ Mr. Davidson. They know the careful and conscientious care he puts on every piece of work he turns out, be it large or small.

At the present time Mr. Davidson is retained by the Conshohocken Electric Company and Lee Tire to do all their excavating and cement work.

In addition Mr. Davidson daily handles many other contracts with private individuals. No job is too small or too large for Mr. Davidson to give it his careful and deliberate attention.

Probably his success hinges on two big facts, the reasonableness of his estimates and the service and quality of his work. Nothing further need be said of the first other than his prices compare favorably with any other contractor in the business.

The second point consists of two points. First he gives the best of material the market offers and second, he employs a first class force of workmen. When you get excellent material and have it worked up by expert hands you are certain to get a first class job.

Mr. Davidson did all the cement and excavating work on the new houses at 8th avenue for Contractor and Builder Havrey.

Manure and soil can be purchased from Mr. Davidson. He can be reached through the mails at the William Penn Post Office or by telephone, by calling, Conshohocken 228-J.

Roofs Should Be Repaired To Save Buildings

Edward Gillespie Specializes in Special Roofing

The heaviest rains of the season have not yet visited this section, according to the weather report, and the rain, snow, hail, and sleet storms of the winter months are not far distant. Now is the time to prepare for their coming and save both money and trouble.

Your roof is the most exposed to the storms. If it is not in excellent condition the remainder of the residence will suffer as the consequence. It is up to you to have the leaks instantly repaired and have Edward J. Gillespie, tin and slag roofing contractor, do the job.

Mr. Gillespie has repaired countless roofs in and around Conshohocken, because the National shingle can be produced cheaper and are the best on the market. Water will not leak through the material, fire will not burn through the asbestos and the shingles will not curl.

Strip shingles are 16 inches by 37 1/2 inches. Individual shingles are 16 1/2 inches by 37 1/2 inches while the roll roofing is 168 feet long and 27 1/2 feet wide. They come in the following colors: red, green, blue and black.

"Novelty" warm air furnaces for pipe and pliers heating are handled by Mr. Gillespie whose shop is located at 234 East 8th avenue. He can be reached by telephone by calling Conshohocken 157-W.

There are several models of their heaters all which are constructed on the same general principle and are considered the best on the market. Not only do they throw more heat but the drain on the coal bin is less.

John Wood team added another victory to their list in the local Industrial League at the athletic field on Friday evening by defeating the W. C. Hamilton team by the score of 5 to 2 and mounting their third win in four games.

For the first five innings the contest was close, but in the sixth frame the "Bulldog" Makers scored three runs which made victory sure. Cannon was on the rube hit as usual, for the Wood team and while he was touched up for rube hits he kept them well distributed while on the other hand the batsmen of Newberry, hitting the "Paper Makers," came in clusters. Clyde Moser continued his wonderful batting streak and had three solid hits out of five times at bat. Wheeler was the real batting star of the game, getting three of four trips to the rubber, two of which cleared the bases for home runs. McMahon also got these hits. Wright and Leary were the best hitters for Hamilton team. The batting of Milton at second was sensational in accepting nine chances without the semblance of an error.

Frederick A. C. Defeated By Norristown Athletics

Frederick A. C. suffered their first defeat in five games when they were handed a 2 to 2 setback by the Norristown Athletics on Sunday afternoon at the former's field on Hills Pike. Errors by the Frederick team gave most of the runs to the A's. Lefty Graham was on the mound for Frederick and while yielding twelve hits, he kept them scattered, many by his teammates being responsible for most of the tallies of the victors. Maggio was on the hill for the Athletics and struck out thirteen. Frederick were the first to score. They put over two markers in the first inning on two hits, an error and infield out. But the Norristown came right back in the second and put over a trio of runs on a couple of hits and errors and therefore held the lead. J. Dempsey and Viscia each had two hits for Frederick while Coven had a long triple in the eighth with one out, but was left stranded while the next two batters popped up. W. Sauer played a good game in the field for the Frederick team, accepting five hard chances without an error.

LEE LEAGUE STANDING

In the interdepartmental league of the Lee Tire & Rubber Company the Cutting Department is leading with five victories and two defeats, but are being hard pressed by the Calendar and Office departments who are tied away for second place with four victories and three defeats. The Curing Department is in fourth place, having won three and lost four of their games. The Engineers, under the leadership of "Shorty" Dunham, seems to have the cellar championship sewed up, having yet to win a game with five defeats chalked up against them. The standing of the teams is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
Cutting Dept.	5	2
Calendar & Sundry Dept.	4	3
Office	4	3
Curing Dept.	3	4
Engineers	0	5

Before a large crowd of rooters the Cutting Department took the lead away from the Calendar-Sundry Dept. by winning a pitcher's day last night at the 3rd Field 4-1. The game was featured by the sensational fielding of Duffell and Wm. Deisinger for the winners and the daring base running of Nellen for the losers.

"Mama!" asked a precocious youngster at the table the other evening, after a long and yearning gaze toward a plate of doughnuts—"mama, do you think I could stand another one of those fried holes?" She thought he could.

What Women Talk About

First Cat: "Where is Mr. Peck? I haven't seen him all evening?"

Second Cat: "I don't know—but I suspect he is lost in one of the folds of his wife's second skin."

The Bitter Awakening

"Yes, said the great, 'I woke up one morning and found myself famous.'"

"It was slightly different with me," sighed the other. "I found myself famous—and then I woke up."

Aint it the Truth?

"The American women are alright," said the speaker. "Every day they are showing more and more—"

"Tuckles!"—said a voice from a rear seat.

The Boy Was Right

Mrs. Fiske: "My, my—such wonderful clothes that tall women have there is wearing. I wonder where she lives?"

Mr. Cynic: "My guess would be 'Just beyond her husband's income.'"

TRAIL AND MILON SHOW GREAT SWIM

Mignon Swimmers Big Help In Club's Victory at Pitman

Dave Trail and Frank Milon, two youthful members of Mignon, were instrumental in the Philadelphia Swimming Club winning the point trophy at Pitman, N. J., in which they competed with the Philadelphia Turners and Pitman Swimming Club on Saturday.

Trail was the big noise in the victory for his club, winning the 225-yard swim and also winning the relay race after a wonderful race with Carl Uman, winner of many titles. Dave used his head by holding enough strength in reserve to make a wonderful spurt in the last twenty yards of the race. Milon won the two-yard breaststroke. With the great work of these two boys their club won by only four points.

Little Geo Wash

Young Thing—"That horrid old Mr. Drexel just said that billing and coining ends with the honeymoon. Did you find it so?"

Mere Man:—"Only the coining."
